

The Ercros factory in Tortosa supports with a donation the Red Cross food bank

The Ercros factory in Tortosa has made a donation to the Red Cross food bank to support its campaign to help the most vulnerable families in the town.

Jordi Bonilla, vice president of the local Red Cross assembly, visited the factory to receive the donation from Joan Carles Galiana, director of industrial relations at the centre. The representative of the Red Cross thanked the donation, emphasizing the increase in people who need to be cared for by the food bank of his entity.
