

The Ercros factory in Sabiñánigo donates 840 kilograms of food to Cáritas

The Ercros factory in Sabiñánigo has collected 840 kilos of food and hygiene products, which have been donated to Cáritas to serve the most vulnerable families in the territory.

The factory staff collected 260 kilograms of food, which was completed by Ercros, who donated another 580 kilos.

Enrique Solano, head of industrial relations at the Sabiñánigo factory, has been in charge of delivering the collected food.
