

The social group Joaquín Costa of Vila-seca II visits the city of Cuenca and its surroundings

A group of 47 members of the social group Joaquín Costa of the Vila-seca II factory has made a weekend trip to visit the city of Cuenca and its surroundings.

The group traveled by coach to Cuenca where they were able to visit the cathedral, the old town and the famous hanging houses. The next day they made a route through the park of the Enchanted City where they discovered its characteristic rock formations. They finished the day touring the ravine of Ventano del Diablo and the municipality of Motilla del Palancar.

The hikers took advantage of the travel to make a couple brotherhood dinners, in which they could taste the traditional gastronomy of the province of Cuenca.
